

Date: 12/28/20
Hon. Judge Sarah L. Cave

U.S. District Court Re: Pro Se Filing, 18 -cv-7877

Re: Eubanks v. New YorkCity Department of Education et al., 1:18 -cv-07877 LJJ-SCL
Extension Request on the Response to Summary Motion for Summary Judgement

Dear Judge Cave :

I write to respectfully request a nunc pro tunc extension of time from original due date:12/21/20 to new deadline:12/31/20 to file my Oppositions Statement. I submitted a draft to NYLAG, Ms. Tarnofsky and gratefully received limited feedback and a sample format. I ask for this extension because I received a sample format on 12/18/20 that I thought would be completed after working in haste all weekend and Monday 12/21/20 when I realized I had not completed sections correctly when I was about to send the documents. I contacted Ms. Quinn opposing counseling and I have taken additional time to make sure I have a clear understanding and have reorganized the text and exhibits which is nearly complete. Additionally I lost another family member to COVID on the evening of 12/21/20. This is my [☐first] [☐second] [☒third or additional] request for an extension. I [☒have] [☐have not] conferred with opposing counsel] about this request for an extension. Opposing counsel [☒does not object] [☐objects] [☐did not respond]. I thank the Court in advance for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted, Karen Eubanks

Karen Eubanks

Pro se [☒Plaintiff] [☐Defendant]

70 LaSalle Street

Apt.10D

New York, NY 10027